Principal Consultant/Team Leader – CFO Practice, Private Equity - City - Competitive Salary + Bonus + Benefits

My client is a finance recruitment business who sources the best financial talent in exciting Private Equity backed businesses. They have been established since 2010 and are headed up by a management team with a super track record in finance recruitment.

As a business, they work with private equity investors, their portfolio companies or privately-owned businesses looking to exit. They work across sectors and have filled assignments across Europe, from start-up businesses to £500m t/o businesses, with the common denominator being the ownership structure and the focus on return on investment. They have a great network of potential candidates and maintain relationships across a range of private equity firms, investment directors and chairmen.

They are looking to hire a Principal Consultant to join their thriving CFO practice. You will be joining a team of 5 and will be recruiting CFO's into PE backed companies at salaries from £200k+. Over 50% of these roles are retained and fees are high.

To be successful in this space you will be an experienced Finance Recruitment Consultant with recent exposure recruiting at qualified finance level. You will have a thorough approach to your work, be quality driven, intelligent with the gravitas and commerciality to be able to build relationships in this sector

In return you will receive an attractive basic salary, excellent commission structure and benefits including access to an EMI scheme. You will be rewarded with a genuinely challenging working environment, a high degree of independence and great rewards for top performers.
