

Vacancies

(LC 418)

Search Consultant – Tax - City of London - Competitive Salary + Commission + Bonus

Superb opportunity to join a privately owned Global Search and Selection firm with c 70 recruitment professionals operating from offices in London, Hong Kong, New York and Singapore.

Clients are leading global businesses in Commerce & Industry, Financial Services and Professional Services firms. They operate in the space between the major contingent operators and board level search firms, handling roles typically at salary levels of between £70,000 and £350,000. Twenty per cent of their mandates are retained and more than half of work is done on a retained or exclusive basis.

They have an opportunity to join their Tax Practice, recognised as the market leader in tax professional recruitment. They recruit tax professionals at all levels from newly qualified to Partner and Global Head of Tax on a permanent or interim basis. They have long standing relationships with financial services institutions, professional services firms, multinational listed businesses and private corporates. The existing team are experienced Recruitment Consultants who are true experts in their field.

As a business they can offer strong client relationships, a platform for exceptional recruiters to bill well, an adult yet fun and positive working environment. You will be given the freedom to run your own desk and work in an entrepreneurial culture where you will be backed to succeed.

The successful candidate will be an experienced Recruitment Consultant ideally in Tax or in a related subject. In return you will be rewarded with market leading compensation including basic salary, commission, profit share and bonus.

For further information, please contact Louise on 020 3696 1213 or email louise@gsr2r.com