Contracts Consultant, Financial Services - Liverpool Street - Competitive basic + commission + bonus

My client is a global staffing solutions business working in partnership with high profile, FTSE100 companies to place talented candidates into both permanent and contract roles.

Based in stunning offices at Liverpool Street, they are looking to hire an experienced Contracts Recruitment Consultant to place accounting and finance candidates into a varied mix of clients across Banking and the wider Financial Services space.

You will be joining an experienced and established team of 11 and you will be given a warm desk with active client accounts to work on from day one so you can start earning money immediately at the same time as building your desk.

Why you should join?

You will be working for one of the most successful recruitment businesses in London

There is a huge amount of support and their training programme is unrivalled and is designed to maximise your potential

They are based in modern offices at Liverpool Street and the atmosphere on the sales floor is fun, positive and motivated

They will offer uncapped commission and a quarterly bonus scheme

Big biller lunches

Incentive trips – at great overseas locations for you and your partner

Company sports teams

Company shares

Genuine opportunities to work overseas

If you have previous recruitment experience, are self motivated, professional and enjoy working in a team oriented environment, I'd love to hear from you.
