

Vacancies

(CW462)

Recruitment Consultant - HR - Central London - £35000 + uncapped commission

Hot client base for you to tap into placing HR professionals into a variety of sectors within the non financial markets.

Going into an established fun team you would be a specialist in one client sector placing HR professionals on a permanent basis.

If you like working on quick, fast paced placements this would be salaries up to 40k, or if more senior placement is right for you then great, my client can offer either on different teams.

They are:

An established HR recruitment consultancy

55 people in central London, teams recruiting within one client sector only

One of the top names with the HR recruitment space

Social and fun to work for

Low staff turnover

They can offer you:

A hot client base within the C&I sector

To work with leading experts/high performers in the HR recruitment sector

Encouraged to do business face to face and use your expense card

Training and development from an external trainer monthly

Succession plans for your career tailored around what you want

Space/Support and time to become an expert in the market

Flexible working/high billers incentives/2 parties a year/team drinks and social monthly

You need:

1 year's permanent recruitment experience in any professional market

Experience working with C&I clients is ideal but NOT essential

Be passionate to work to high standards

A positive person who strives to be the best

Wants to work as part of a successful team

For further information, call Cheryl on 020 3889 1671