

Vacancies

(MK479)

Recruitment Consultant - M&E Design - City of London - £25k - £35k + uncapped commission monthly

Hot desk! Inherit a desk dealing with large and medium sized design consultancies within the M&E sector.

Work for one of the most successful construction and property recruitment business over the past 5 years who have expanded to over 50 staff from their central London base. They are ambitious and growing across all sectors but have maintained their autonomous and grown up culture throughout, with hands on billing managers and directors who lead from the front. Be part of this success story and join their most successful team within the M&E and work alongside a genuine industry leader in this sector.

They are:

Established built environment recruitment business

Over 50 staff in their prestigious London office

Multiple successful divisions ranging from M&E to Architecture, Maintenance and Construction

Ambitious growth plans and career opportunities to match

They can offer you:

A very hot desk/clients to take over

Training and development throughout your career

Fantastic incentives from trips overseas to huge financial rewards

Team work/Fun place to work/Grown up environment

Strong leaders/Industry knowledge and training

Defined and achievable career path

Commission monthly uncapped

You need:

6-18 months permanent recruitment experience in a blue or white-collar construction market

Strong work ethic and drive

Sense of humour, down to earth personality

High standards and ambition

Do you want to work for a genuine success story in the construction and property sector who have grown to nearly 60 people in the past 5 years?

Right for you? Just want to know more? Contact me on 020 3889 1673 or send your CV.