Shorter working hours in the school holidays (just four hours a day)

Shift rota in place so you don't have to always start at 7am

Cool offices

Relationships overseas are in place to attract the best candidates

The owner is ready to invest and take this business to 40 over the next two years

Part of a group of recruitment businesses and they are all based in these offices

You will need -

Temporary recruitment experience in any sector

A real desire to be part of a great culture that is growing

Motivation, fun and a "will do" positive attitude

An interest in the Education sector

I've worked with this business owner across all his recruitment businesses for 10 years. In this time I have placed over 30 people who are still enjoying successful careers in these brands. This company will be exciting to work for, it will reward for hard work and effort and give you the skills to be the best and earn really well.

If you are looking to be part of a company striving to be number one, this could be for you.
