

Vacancies

(MK509)

Executive Search Consultant - Construction & Property - West End - £60000 + monthly uncapped commission

Executive Search Consultant is required to recruit salary levels of over £100k into the Construction, Residential and Property sector

Do you have a passion for the built environment and want to work at the senior end of the market with clients who influence the very environment we live and work in?

Have you worked in a contingent recruitment role and want to take the step up to work on retained assignments with large fee's?

Do you have the gravitas and emotional intelligence to influence the leaders of large multi-billion pound organisations?

They are:

Established in the Residential, Construction and Property sector for over 20 years

Proven track record of delivering retained assignments and repeat business with industry leading brands in the Construction and Property sector

Supported by industry professionals from the highest echelons of the Property and Construction world

Recognised brand name and a go to for the most prestigious projects in the UK and Internationally

They can offer you:

An unrivalled potential client list

Training and development throughout your career to develop search and selection skillset

Work life balance/Flexible working hours

Professional, autonomous and grown up working environment

Strong support from Administration, Research to non-exec directors from the world of Property

Strong leaders/Industry knowledge and training

Outstanding Commission

You will need:

5 years plus permanent recruitment experience in a professional sector ideally related to the Construction and Property sector but this is not essential

Strong work ethic and drive

Professionalism, business acumen and be a strong influencer

Attention to detail

High standards and ambition

Join this globally recognised Property and Construction Executive Search consultancy and work with the movers and shakers in Property and Construction world.

Right for you? Just want to know more? Contact me or send your CV.

mike@gsr2r.com 020 3889 1672