Recruitment Consultant - Procurement - West End - £28000 - 36000 + commission

Superb opportunity working for a hugely successful and privately owned Public and NFP specialist. Based in Central London and with a turnover of £50m, they are a truly impressive business.

They work across all NFP sectors including local and central government, NHS, charity, education and housing. They offer a fresh and down to earth approach to recruitment based on honest relationships, sound judgement and exceptional customer service. As a result, they have enjoyed unrivalled success with over half of the billing consultants earning over £200k per annum. Turnover is very low, everyone here is very happy; they are all billing well and are extremely well rewarded for their efforts - financially but also in terms of career progression, away days, trips, incentives, and benefits.

They are looking for an experienced Procurement Recruitment Consultant with a strong billing track record and solid career history to join an experienced team. You will be working with some of the most experienced consultants operating in the market today; the opportunity to learn, develop and earn are limitless.

Sounds good? It definitely is! However expectations are high so a very strong work ethic and a natural personal resilience are essential qualities. Great company, amazing billings, opportunity to work with some of the best in London and earn a lot of money!
