Senior Recruitment Consultant - Interim Finance into Media - City - £28000 - 40000 + commission

Do you want to work for a leading recruitment business in London?

Are you ready to take on a warm Interim desk recruiting Accounting and Finance candidates into the Media space?

Do you want access to the best benefits package in London?

My client is a leading, independent finance recruitment business in Central London established over 20 years'. Currently they are one of the largest financial recruitment businesses in the London market with c150 staff and hold an impressive number of industry awards.

They are looking to add to their Qualified Finance division and are seeking an experienced Interim Recruitment Consultant to work on a hot desk recruiting qualified accounting and finance candidates into PSL clients within the Media space. You will be working with some well known and high profile brand names and working on roles from newly qualified to FD levels at daily rates from £250 - 600+. You will be joining a mature, impressive team who work collaboratively, work hard but have fun at the same time.

The successful candidate will be an experienced interim recruitment consultant with a minimum of 12 months experience. You will be working in an autonomous environment with an experienced team and have a real platform from which to bill and earn good money.

In return you will receive a competitive basic salary and a commission structure that pays out at over 30%. Guarantees can also be given. Benefits are superb and include free breakfast, mortgage fund, extra holidays, pension and many other incentives including sports & social clubs.
