

Vacancies

(CW606)

Interim Recruitment Manager - Marketing/FMCG - City - £50-60000 + uncapped commission

Are you looking to take an interim team that are good to outstanding? My client has an amazing client base that they are just touching the surface on with the interim team.

The plan is expand the existing interim offering across all market sectors that the perm team are successful in.

Currently the interim team are 2 people that are doing well within the FMCG space, your role would be to grow this team mirroring the perm team sectors.

This includes Marketing, Digital and other professional candidates into the FMCG space.

The company is established and has an amazing client list for you to work with, this is a hot role for you from day one, the business is job rich.

A little about the company:

Established for 10 years

Recruit in the FMCG/Consumer space

Offer flexible working

Longevity within the team/26 people

Ongoing training and progression (this role can be an AD role)

Excellent remuneration (will guarantee)

Based in Central London and an easy commute from main stations

The role:

Billing leader on the interim team (team leader/Manager/AD level)

Take the interim team forward in head count plus profit

Work closely with the perm team to unitize their clients

Lead/manage the existing team

Be part of the leadership team and being influential in the running of the business

Work with market trends to understand your market

Be accountable for your interim team

Experience needed:

Ran a successful interim desk in any professional market

Ideally worked with C&I or Consumer clients

Had exposure to leadership at either team level/ Manager or AD level

Have a genuine passion for developing people

Enjoy recruitment and really care about the service the business they work for offers

This company has a wonderful culture that's really unique, people genuinely care about each other and how well they do. Coming into this business this would need to be something you would be happy with. This company is in growth mode and it's all about the interim team.

Are you ready for a challenge and to make a difference? They can offer you a great team to take over and hot client base to make this happen.

Please do contact me for more details cheryl@gsr2r.com 020 3889 1671