Recruitment Consultant - Change Management into Financial Services

Dual Desk

Central London

£26000 - 35000 + commission + benefits

Superb opportunity for a Recruitment Consultant to join a high performing and top billing team recruiting into Projects and Business Change.

You will be joining a leading financial services recruitment business in the London, regional and international markets. Established over 20 years', they have 600 people working in 24 offices across 10 countries and they operate across 8 core markets. The London office is state of the art, extremely impressive and based in Central London. They offer rewarding, long term careers. It's an exciting time to join the business and there's a lot of investment in this division.

You will be joining a team of 4 and working a dual desk recruiting Projects and Business Change professionals into a hot desk across the wider Financial Services sector including Asset Management, Investment Management, Investment Banks and Consultancies. There is a hot desk on offer with jobs being called in but you will be a 360 recruiter, who is open to networking and leveraging off existing client relationships. The team is collaborative, supportive and the highest performing team in the business and there is the potential for you to bill and earn a lot of money.

You will have at least 2 years' recruitment experience in any sector and if you are looking to develop your career and step up in to a management role in the near future, there is definitely potential for that too.

Why join? They will offer a mature working environment with no kpi's, a competitive salary and commission and an amazing benefits structure that includes flexitime, working from home, early finishes, private healthcare, career progression and ongoing training.
