Senior Recruitment Consultant - Interim - West End - 50000

Senior Consultant/Manager opportunity –Interim Accountancy and Finance

Competitive salary, commission and benefits

Central London

Superb opportunity to join a boutique accounting and finance recruitment consultancy based in Central London. Established 8 years, they recruit into Commerce & Industry, Financial Services and Arts & Charities. They recruit from PQ to CFO level on a permanent and interim basis. They have real plans to grow and are looking for ambitious recruiters to help them do this.

They are looking for an experienced Interim Manager/Team Leader to add to the team. This is a hot desk and you will inherit the day book from day one. You will be placing interim/fixed term contract candidates into industry clients and you will have a focus on media and consumer markets. Typical roles will be in financial/management accounting/commercial finance and change/transformation projects. There is an established client base that you will be able to build upon to generate further revenue.

It is a great time to join and they are looking to hire an ambitious individual who can play a key part in the business operationally. The ideal candidate will have experience of working in an interim accountancy market and have a good track record of billings. On offer is a great platform to build a successful interim division.

You will receive a competitive basic salary, a monthly commission that pays well and a quarterly kicker. There is a management bonus scheme in place and equity potential for high performers. They offer a flexible working culture, 28 days holiday and much more.
