

Vacancies

---

(LC619)

Senior Recruitment Consultant - A&F into Charity - City of London - c£40,000 + commission + benefits

Fantastic opportunity for an experienced Recruitment Consultant to work for this Charity recruitment specialist, established almost 30 years' and based in the City of London.

They are a super business with a consultative, collaborative approach, there is no hard sell with them, they don't operate to KPI's and they have an enviable brand name in the market. They are a team of experienced recruiters who are extremely good at their jobs, professional, dedicated and committed. They operate across the whole of the Charity sector and recruit at all levels from fundraising assistants to CEO's.

Due to increased demand they are looking to add an accounting and finance division to their business and are looking for an experienced Recruitment Consultant to head this up and eventually grow it by building out a team. You will have access to every single client, PSL and otherwise and will have free rein over all permanent, contract and interim roles across London and the South East.

On offer is an attractive basic salary + commission structure and a benefits package that includes 28 days holiday, a sabbatical after 3 years and working from home 2 days per week.

Interested? Call me for further information