Recruitment Consultant - Accounting and Finance - Central London - £35000 + commission

Recruitment Consultant – Accounting and Finance into Real Estate, Property

Central London

£35k + commission

Fantastic opportunity for an Accounting and Finance Recruitment Consultant to join a leading, international recruitment provider to the Real Estate, Finance, Accounting & Banking, Construction & Engineering sectors.

Due to unprecedented growth, they are seeking to add to their team and are looking for an experienced Recruitment Consultant to work on a permanent desk placing accounting and finance candidates at salaries from £30 – 50k in the Property market.

This is a busy, fast paced desk working with an established client base that includes SME businesses to larger corporates. On offer is a hot desk where you will be given clients and jobs to work on from day one. The candidate base is well established too and it will be easy to bill and make money.

This is a busy and fast paced role and you will need to have experience recruiting accounting and finance professionals. This is a super opportunity to work for a specialist recruitment business who are seen as experts in their space. The team are all billing well, it is busy but they have fun and support each other.

They will offer a competitive salary and commission structure as well as super training, ongoing incentives and rewards.
