Recruitment Consultant - Accounting and Finance - City of London - 25000 -35000

How would you feel working for a larger team who work collaboratively, share ideas, candidates and support each other?

Would you benefit from having a hot desk where you only need to concentrate on building client relationships?

This is a fantastic opportunity for an Accounting and Finance Recruitment Consultant to join a leading, international recruitment provider to the Real Estate, Finance, Accounting & Banking, Construction & Engineering sectors. Established for almost 20 years', they are a recognised market leader in their space. They build long term partnerships with their clients and much of their business is repeat business. The senior management team are experienced and experts. They are based in Central London, close to a number of mainline train/underground stations.

Due to an internal move, they are seeking to add to their successful accounting and finance team and are looking for an experienced Recruitment Consultant to work on a permanent desk placing accounting and finance candidates at salaries from £30 – 50k in the Property market.

This is a busy, fast paced desk that has billed c£200k this year, working with an established client base that includes SME businesses to larger corporates. You will have jobs to work on from day one. The candidate base is well established too and it will be easy to bill and make money.

This is a busy and fast paced role and you will need to have experience recruiting accounting and finance professionals. This is a super opportunity to work for a specialist recruitment business who are seen as experts in their space. The team are all billing well, it is busy but they have fun and support each other.

They are experts at what they do but it's also a great place to work with a family feel to it. They are fast growing and profitable and have a great work/life balance. 98% of employees recommend them. They will offer a competitive salary and uncapped commission structure as well as super training, ongoing incentives and rewards. They are a global business and there are opportunities for moves in their worldwide offices.
